This document only provides a summary of this policy. Please read your Policy Wording, Schedule and Key Facts for full details.

What is this type of insurance?

This Flying Freehold policy has been designed for the situation where part of a freehold property extends over or under adjoining premises and you are unable to enforce necessary repairs to such adjoining premises for the support and protection of your own property including where the adjoining premises are uninsured or inadequately insured

What is insured?

In the event you are unable to enforce the repair of adjoining premises necessary for the support and protection of the insured property:

- ✓ The reduction in value of the property
- ✓ Other costs and expenses with Insurer's consent

What is not insured?

✗ You will not be insured for the costs of maintenance and repair to the insured property

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! The policy does not cover new development or change of use
- ! The property must not be a freehold flat or maisonette

Where am I covered?

✓ The Policy provides cover for the Property as noted in the Policy Schedule

What are my obligations?

- You must take care to ensure information provided to the Insurer which is relevant to this cover is accurate. If you have taken out the policy for business purposes, you must also disclose sufficient information to ensure a fair presentation of the risk is made. Failure to do so could invalidate the policy or lead to a claim not being paid in full or at all.
- Not to disclose the existence of the policy to third parties other than genuine purchasers of your interest in the Property and their mortgagees without prior consent of the Insurer
- To tell us as soon as possible if you become aware of circumstances which could give rise to a claim under the Policy
- To co-operate with the Insurer, respond to requests for documents and provide the information about a claim that your Insurer may need

When and how do I pay?

Your premium can be paid as a one-off payment which can be made by cheque or bank transfer.

When does the cover start and end?

Your cover will take effect on the Commencement Date and will remain in force for a period of 25 years from the Commencement Date for the Purchaser and their successors in title and any mortgagee will be covered for the full term of any mortgage commencing during the said 25 years and the agreed Limit of Indemnity is specified on your Policy Schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

If you are an individual buying a policy which provides cover for you in a private capacity, you may cancel this policy within 14 days of its conclusion or receipt of the policy document. To cancel you should contact the person who arranged the cover. You will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid less a deduction based upon the duration of cover provided unless a claim becomes payable under the policy prior to cancellation taking effect.

Important: cancellation may place you in breach of contract in relation to a property sale or mortgage

Mortgagees: cancellation by any other insured will not affect the rights of any mortgage lender unless the mortgage lender is aware of or agreed to the cancellation of the policy.
